

You may be familiar with the movie “Charlie & the Chocolate Factory” but, if you are unfamiliar with the story, it is about an eccentric owner of a chocolate factory who holds a contest for five lucky winners to tour his shop and win a lifetime of chocolate!

The fun continues as the winners tour Willie Wonka’s Chocolate Factory and encounter the Oompa-loompas, various troubles and adventures. Come join in the fun!

Well, now, you’ve got a chance to see “Charlie & the Chocolate Factory” in musical form as “Willie Wonka, Jr.” at Parker Junior High School on Friday, April 30th & Saturday, May 1st at 7:30 p.m. Admission for adults and PJH students without ID’s is $5.00. Senior citizens, children, and PJH students with an ID are in luck, you get in for only $3.00. If you’re interested in this play, then please come to Parker Junior High School, 2810 School Street, Flossmoor, IL 60422.

