

Character Counts Essay 8

If the mayor of Flossmoor asked me what I would do to make this town better for kids, I would say "I have a few ideas."

The first idea I would say is to make more parks for the little kids. There is a big open lot down the way from the Flossmoor train station. All that's there is grass and part of the sidewalk. That area would be a good place to put a small park for kids to run and play at. The town of Flossmoor could have a meeting and ask some kids about what type of playground toys they like to play on. That would make many kids happy.

Another idea I would bring up is to have a big brother or big sister program. It is a group of Highschool teenagers who want to work with little kids and help them do better. It would be a program for kids who don't have an older brother or sister to look up to. The kids will love it and the teenagers would work on their citizenship by giving back to their town. It would also give them some
