

September 30, 2010

If possible, please send a photographer to this event.

Students of Flossmoor Hills School in Flossmoor School District 161 will attend a special assembly as part of a school project for Character Counts! Character Counts! is a community and school-based initiative which reinforces the six pillars of good character. The pillars are trustworthiness, respect, fairness, caring, responsibility, and citizenship.

The Magic Storyteller, Chris McBrien, will present the motivational assembly that focuses on the six pillars of good character and bullying prevention for all children. He will offer an interactive experience using ventriloquism, comedy, puppetry, and magic.

A teacher, speaker, and comedian, the Magic Storyteller provides a positive message in more than 300 assemblies each year.

The assembly is scheduled at 9:00 a.m. for grades K-2, and 10:00 a.m. for grades 3-5 on Thursday, October 14.