

September 21, 2010

Flossmoor School District 161 is privileged to announce that Dr. Vanessa Atkins, Principal of Parker Junior High School, will be among the 2010 Honorees at the upcoming Echoes of Excellence: Salute to Outstanding Women award luncheon, Saturday, October 30.

The award, which honors women who are making a difference in their respective fields throughout Chicagoland, is presented by the Joliet Area/South Suburban Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

In addition to education, the sorority will recognize women in the fields of arts and entertainment, civic leadership, community activism, journalism and media relations, medicine and health services, and ministry and religious studies.

The organization is committed to serving the south suburban community and has provided various programs on health related topics, homeownership, scholarship, census awareness and Habitat for Humanity, among others.

Dr. Atkins, also a 2007 recipient of the Recognition for Excellence in Education Award, was appointed as the Principal of Parker Junior High School in Flossmoor School District 161 in 1998. She received her Doctor of Education degree from Loyola University Chicago.

###

Photo caption – IMG_JPG Dr. Atkins
Dr. Vanessa Moore Atkins, Principal of Parker Junior High School,
Flossmoor School District 161

