

November 23, 2010

Fourth and fifth grade student members of the Flossmoor Hills School Chorus are scheduled to perform on Wednesday, December 15, at 12:00 noon at Borders in Matteson, IL.

The performance is an activity to help reinforce the CHARACTER COUNTS! initiative shared by Flossmoor School District 161 and the community.

CHARACTER COUNTS! is a national youth ethics initiative to help students explore the Six Pillars of good character: Trustworthiness, Responsibility, Respect, Fairness, Caring, and Citizenship.

Under the direction of Ms. M'rald Calhoun, the Flossmoor Hills chorus will sing songs about unity and love with hopes of spreading holiday cheer.

Members of the chorus include fourth grade students Caleb Anderson, Leah Brooks, Trinity Chisolm, Shelby Crook, Mya Cross, Dakota Duplessis, Kira Gilbert, Sean Graney, Laurin Neal, Osayi Osabuohien, Jordan Reese, Autumn Staples, and Ethan Tyner.

Fifth grade chorus members include: Kiyonna Anderson, Tylah Barron, Tiki Brown, Griffin Carter, Aalilyah Gilbert, D'amante Gray, Paige Harbin, Destiny Harper, Khadijah Harris, De'Avion Hughes, Cameron Johnson, Kiara Mills, Quaralyn Milroe, Morgan Moore, Raven Reeves, Kenneth Taggart, Josha Thomas, Kyla Thomas, Danielle Turner, and Phyllis Washington.

###