

May 12, 2010

Students from Flossmoor School District 161 in Flossmoor again participated in the South Cook Math Bowl, held May 5 and 6, at Prairie State College.

Division A team members, consisting of first and second grade students, were Greta List, Elijah List, Noah List and Alexia Pugh, from Western Avenue School. Abby Rosales, Heather Hill School was an alternate.

Noah List earned a first place individual award for grade two. Elijah List earned a second place individual award for grade two. The Division A team, coached by Ms. Kate Raddtz, was awarded first place.

Division B, coached by Ms. Shavon Collier, consisted of third and fourth grade students. They were awarded fifth place in the team competition.

Khari Hill, Joey Humphrey, Western Avenue School and Ben Wooton, Serena Hills School were Division B team members. Perry Hoag, Allie Mangel and Tyler VanKley, Western Avenue students, were the alternates.

Division C, the fifth and sixth grade students coached by Ms. Brittany Jonaitis, was awarded second place in the team competition.

Members of the team were fifth grade students from Western Avenue School, Daniel Stempel and Jacob Rothchild. Ben Hoefle, Western Avenue School, was an alternate.

Sixth grade team members were Michael Gislason, Mbella Beseka, and alternate Jessica Barry from Parker Junior High School. Mbella Beseka was named MVP for Divisions C and D, Daniel Stempel earned a second place individual award, and Michael Gislason earned a third place individual award.

The Division D team of Parker Junior High School students coached by Ms. Carolyn Scanlon earned a second place overall team award. Team members were seventh grade students Evan Runburg, Branden Levine, and alternate Marcus Mangel. Eighth grade team members were Kristina Hill, Lonnell Mackey, and alternate Sushane Kumar.