

March 18, 2011

The Science Olympiad Teams from Parker Junior High School in Flossmoor School District 161 participated in the 2011 Science Olympiad Regional Competition held at Benedictine University on Saturday, March 12.

Jacob Fontana and Evan Runberg earned sixth place with their entry: "Compute This." A fifth place award went to Marcus Mangel with "Battery Buggy." Fourth place was awarded to Tinisha Thomas and Marcus Mangel with "Disease Detectives," Evan Runberg and Marcus Mangel with "Science Crime Busters," Noah Colon for "Dynamic Planet," and Isaac Arsenault with "Battery Buggy." Brianna Rauch and Noah Colon were awarded third place for "Meteorology," and a second place award was earned by Jessica Barry and Julia Schwieterman for their presentation of "Meteorology."

The following team members also represented District 161: Arminda Cako, Matthew Scholefield, Anisa Johnson, Isabel Weber, Leah Moss, Mae Carroll, Marcia Schwieterman, Mbella Beseka, Nora Grasse, Imani Muhammed, Kira Van Voorhees, Mariah Jiles, Kyle Matl, Peter Cipriano, Ayah Dominguez, Braxton McCarroll, Griffin Wright, Morgan Brison, Nadia Ramos, and Ryan Anderson.

The Science Olympiad Coaches are faculty members: Bridget Gannon, Tim Germeraad, Suzanne Hayden, Amy Lauer, Scott Olson, Karen Roorda, Kara Sitton, Darryl Thompson, and Eric Youngquist.

###